To the best of my knowledge, Your Action Memo is still in RAB. I will find out this morning. I agree let Mark and or Joe ask for the next verbal and explain to Walter why they have not got it down to HQ for concurrence. Especially since Walter was upset initially that this Action memo was still under review by RAB.

Good Afternoon:

When I was in the office two weeks ago we discussed the next verbal request for the NFB removal action and the NFB Action Memo. I was supposed to request another verbal last week but I have held off to see where the action memo processing would go. I have also held off on a discussion with Walter. Tomorrow will be a week since RAB had the action memo. Do we know if it has moved out of RAB yet? I believe Joe informed us that he would get it right out. I would rather RPB management handle the status request from here.

Thanks

Regards,

Eric
